Chris Frost
non-pastoral

Artist Statement

Non-pastoral is an exhibition of new sculptural work by Chris Frost at the Boston Sculptors Gallery. The works in non-pastoral are an exploration of the natural landscape. A perception of landscape, not as just a natural place in time, but nature effected by time.

The floor and wall sculptures combine aspects of traditional landscape painting, porcelain sculpture, collage and contemporary color and form. These artworks, composed of painted fabric, white glazed ceramic and resin on shaped panels, can be seen as a sculptor's rendering of the natural world.

Chris Frost is an artist living and working in Somerville, MA.
